HONDO ELECTRIC USERS

... might know that the City of Hondo receives its electricity from San Antonio and any threatened shortage in that city can, and certainly will, be passed on here.

The City of Hondo Electric System should be telling this to the public. Other cities are doing so. San Antonio, Austin and other cities threatened with a curtailment of electrical power are running advertisements that explain this to the public and at the same time, while urging them to voluntarily decrease power use, gives them suggested ways to save on electricity.

Medina Electric Cooperative performs this service for its users. Only last week the Lower Colorado River Authority ran a four column by 65 inch ad in Seguin and all towns in its territory doing the same thing.

But for some reason Hondo has failed to do so. They had an agreement with the Anvil Herald to run one ad per month in which this could have been done, but canceled this as of the first of June.

I'll agree that's one way of saving money, but it sure leaves the Hondo users of electricity in the dark as far as the possible curtailment of electric power here is concerned. And if they want to find ways to decrease their use of electricity, they definitely have to go to some other town to read the facts.

CONGRATULATIONS

... to Rep. John Poerner for being named to the Legislative Property Tax Committee. This is perhaps the most important committee in existence at this time in Texas. Or at least, it's recommendations will touch more people in the state than most committees do.

On the findings of this committee and the acceptance of those findings by the Texas Legislature, will hinge the future of public school education, as well as other programs funded from the public tax trough.

It's a big and important task, and we are happy that at least part of the work will be done by our local representative who knows from experience the problem of taxation on agricultural land and other property.

SALE TIME

... is here again and this week the Hondo merchants are offering some terrific bargains for those weary pocketbooks. Since most everything you read these days is about spiraling prices, it will be a pleasure [we hope] for our readers to glance through the ads this week and see how they can save money by just shopping at home.

One merchant, DeMontel's, gives two very good reasons why local residents should consider staying at home to do their buying--conserve gasoline and safety. All this plus savings galore. Now, tell me truthfully, how can you beat it?

SCUBA DIVING

... is something one associates with the ocean or bays at least. But don't mislead yourself. It was done successfully here last week.

It seems that Hilmer Mueller lost some expensive, well maybe not too expensive, diving gear but Hilmer said it certainly was as far as he was concerned, while fishing in a tank owned by Fred Bader.

They searched and searched but could not find it. So Henry Flory, the son of the superintendent, put on his scuba diving outfit, or some similar gear, and retrieved the equipment for Hilmer.

Now, I guess Hilmer will repair that attachment that caused him to lose the gear in the first place.

OUCH

... a story written for Radio Station KRME, in describing an accident which took place Sunday said, "... the vehicle hit a bride near Bandera."

DON'T FORGET

... the Museum meeting tonight at Medina Electric Cooperative. Time is 7:30 p.m. There will be discussions on Museum Celebration Days, keeping the Museum open, future plans and other subjects.

Come on out and join in the discussions.

On this subject, I would like to report the Museum has been open all day -- thanks to volunteers.

Ella Oefinger reports she has had excellent response from volunteers and the visitors list at the Museum has been great.

Which proves me wrong. I thought that it would be impossible to keep it open all day with volunteer help. Just goes to prove that when a woman sets her mind to it, she can prove you wrong every time.

So, I say, keep up the good work Ella. I am happy to say I'm wrong if it means the Museum will be open to the public all day this summer.

From ground to air

Rollers and towers took the Medina County Commissioners Court from the ground up Monday.

Commissioners voted to rent a 12-ton, three-wheel roller for Precinct 4. Terms are $600 per month with no interest charged if purchase is made within 60 days.

They went up in the air to approve a radio tower for the Sheriff's Department under the program funded by the Federal government through the Alamo Area Council of Governments.

The Court voted to pay the County's share of $12,026.30 of the overall cost of $48,105.20. The remaining $36,078.90 will be expended by AACOG.

FIRST MAIZE--Leroy Faseler of Yancey unloaded the first load of maize for 1973 Friday afternoon, July 6. He put the maize on the scales at Chapman Grain at about 4:30 p.m. This is the first of what officials and experts say should be a bumper crop for Medina County in 1973. [Photo by Tony Mendoza]

The Good Lord willing....

Harvest to set record

Barring unforeseen weather problems, the 1973 maize crop promises to be a genuine bumper harvest, estimated by County Agent Glenn Bragg to approach $4 million in gross income.

Last year proved to be an above-average year at $2,854,000, but this year's extra-high yield, coupled with rapidly rising prices in the agricultural sector, should drive the grain income to unprecedented heights.

A harvest of 225 million pounds of milo is already there in the fields, but farmers are holding their breath over the recent wet weather which, if it continues, may keep fields muddy and grain moisture too high for harvest.

Bragg indicated that this total is 30 million pounds above the 1972 county harvest, and amounts to about 300 train carloads of extra grain.

This picture is much brighter than it appeared in early April. At that time, a promising corn and milo crop was severely set back by one of the latest frosts on record. Some farmers replanted, others took a chance on regrowth to try to make a crop.

But rains came in abundance and at the right times, to produce the present harvest-in-waiting.

The rest of the nation and the world seem to have combined efforts to put extra money in the farmers' pockets this year, too. Widespread flooding and inclement weather across the U.S., plus increased demand abroad have driven the price of grain upward to near-record levels. Price levels for some early Medina County grain sorghum producers are at $3.45 per hundredweight. This may fall somewhat as the combines get into full swing, but it represents improved income for the farmer over past years.

City Council talks a lot, takes little action

The Hondo City Council discussed many problems, but took little action in Tuesday night's regular monthly meeting at the City Hall Auditorium.

Hearing from the County Judge, a Barrio citizens group, and the Retail Merchants Association, the Council expressed concern for problems of all three groups and discussed solutions, but in the end they postponed action for all but one of the groups.

Confronted with the resignation of City night watchman George Bendele because of the rising costs of bonding and insurance as a licensed watchman, the Council voted, at the request of the Retail Merchants, to underwrite the costs of licensing and bonding Bendele in the future. Bendele had earlier indicated that he would resign effective July 1, but he has stayed on as night watchman.

A group of citizens from the Barrio in east Hondo appeared before the Council and spokesman Lucio Torres stated that the group seeks help in converting a block on 15th St., now used as a ball park, into a children's playground.

Mayor J. G. Barry agreed to meet the group Wednesday at the site, and the group agreed to submit a formal proposal at a future Council meeting.

Councilman Hilmer Mueller pushed for Council action on the proposal made last month by Ernest Bendele that the City buy a portion of his property in east Hondo as a flood prevention project.

The property, said Bendele at that time, needs clearing since it hinders the flow of water after heavy rains and causes flooding of the eastern portion of Hondo. He proposed that the City buy the property and keep it clear of brush and debris.

Mayor Barry cautioned Mueller against taking such action, since there are other flood-prone areas in Hondo as well, and since once the City purchased that parcel of land, other owners would ask the City to buy other land for the same purpose.

Mueller replied that the Barrio problem affects more people than other areas, and should be dealt with first.

Finally, the Council took no action on the proposal. Barry indicated that even if the City would buy the land, it may not drain properly anyway. Barry stated that he did not particularly want the land, and Council members informally agreed.

Council proposed elevations should be taken to indicate drainage patterns before any land purchases were made.

Street Bids

The Street Department's bid offerings for resurfacing City streets were opened at Tuesday's meeting with Kelly Construction Company being awarded the contract on the basis of its bid in the amount of $4,783.32 for one coat of asphalt, and $9,906.78 for two coats.

Three other bids were received, and they ranged from $5,314.80 and $13,971.00 to the high bid of $6,200 and $20,575.62.

Kelly Construction Company has done previous work for the City.

Tougher Bicycle News

Police Chief Jerry Williamson included in his regular police report that an increasing amount of illegal bicycle riding is being observed, despite City ordinances and the Hondo Police Department's educational program.

Williamson indicated that the average offender is not a young child, but about 17 or 18 years old, and many are adults.

Among the illegal acts are riding without lights after dark, carrying riders, and riding on sidewalks. Williamson indicated that police will "clamp down" on offenders from now on, issuing tickets to offenders.

Rezoning

The Council voted unanimously to approve an amendment to the zoning ordinance which will make the highway frontage on Highway 90 from Avenue C eastward to the City Limits, and from the end of commercial property westward to Castro Avenue, all a Commercial zone.

Ambulance Service

County Judge Jerome Decker appeared before the Council with a proposal approved by the Commissioners Court, for an alternative ambulance service for the county.

The proposal called for the county to purchase and equip three ambulances at a projected cost of $6,500 each and maintain the vehicles and man the dispatch and billing system. In return, the three base cities--Hondo, Castroville, and Devine--would employ two full-time attendants each, at a projected cost to them of $10,000 annually. This cost would include one-fourth of the cost of maintaining a central billing office for the service.

Decker reported that Castroville and Devine have indicated agreement to the proposal, and that Hondo and Devine have obtained attendants for the new system.

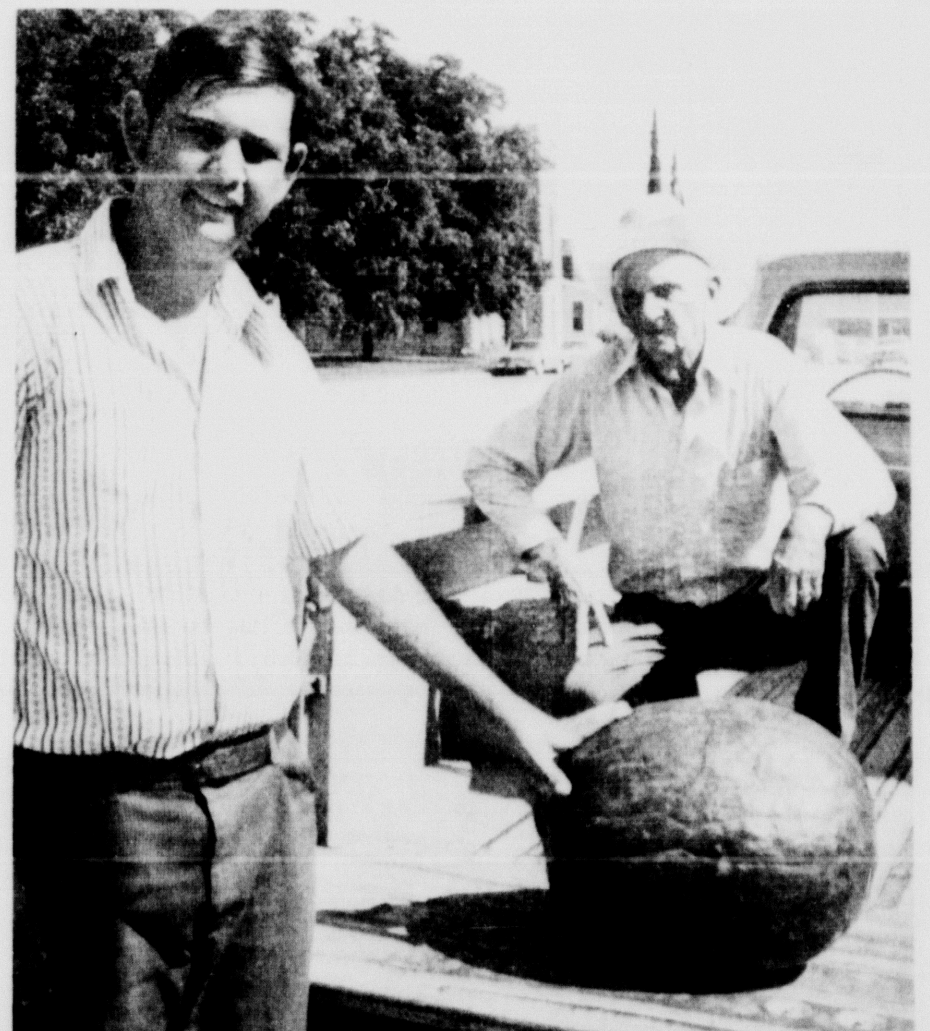

The Hondo City Council balked on approval of the proposal, however, the main objection was to the split of the costs between cities and the county. Councilman R. V. Stanga led the opposition inferring the city's share was too much.

The Council decided to table the proposal, and to hold a special meeting concerning it. However, no date was set for the special meeting.

Expenditures

The Council voted to increase its donation to the Fire Department from $125 to $225 monthly. In addition, funds were allocated in the amount of $250 per man for four Hondo firemen to attend the A&M fire prevention and firefighting workshop this summer.

Also, $100 was voted to buy a new bookcase for the Mayor's office.

THEY GROW BIG--E. D. Dubose and son, Dewey, of Yancey brought in this 57½ pound watermelon to prove they can grow 'em big in Medina County. This is the Black Diamond variety and was grown on the Dubose farm about five miles west of Yancey on the Yancey-D' Hanis road along the Seco Creek.

Letters from the mailbox

Dear Editor:

On June 29 at 8 p.m. at the Medina Valley Junior High School gymnasium in LaCoste some 300 citizens of local towns gathered to discuss plans of opposition to Site H and Alternate H for the San Antonio International Airport to be located in Western Bexar and east Medina County.

This meeting was opened by LaCoste Mayor Russell Jungman who gave a report of the past meeting and plans for future development.

Speaker Al Wooverton gave a report of findings of Quenton-Budlongs and Marmon-Mok-Greens consultants and developers plans. He gave what effect this airport will have on land owners, rural towns and schools, also Hondo airport and Castroville lands.

In a five mile radius there are two schools in LaCoste, three schools in Castroville and also the Medina Valley High School is only two miles distance from Site H and in the path of Alternate H.

His report also showed the appraisal value of this land is $790 per acre (Quenton-Budlongs quote). We people of these two possible sites will have traffic problems, pollution problems, crime, and higher taxes. Grief is what we will get, not a profit from either of these proposed airport sites.

Consultants and developers are making some wrong statements and expect us people to accept them, such as the value of the land and property. Also that taxes will go up 300 percent.

This proposed airport is for the benefit of only a few people, not for the City of San Antonio and its people.

Speaker Ervin Keefer voiced we do not want an airport at this location. He also stressed what it would do to a clean and safe community. He asked all persons to support fighting this airport.

Let's stop these sites; let's head off all progress on them.

Attorney Carol Louis of Bexar - Medina - Atascosa Water District gave some facts and findings. He said plans for such an airport are defective.

We people are right in the long run to speak up for our rights. These are prime agriculture lands of food products of grain, of cattle and other stock. So help the committee being formed with Keefer as chairman.

So please make it a point to sign the petitions placed in local towns. Also you can see maps in these places to know where the sites are.

Victor Graham asked everyone to write to the State and National Representatives and Senators. Some have and already have received replies. These are the people who can help us stop the selection of either one of these sites.

Mrs. George Echtle, Jr.

Dear Burnis:

I have always been blessed with a fine staff of people. My staff of the 63rd Session of the Legislature was the best in the Capitol, and your contribution to my office and the entire Legislature as a whole was most significant. We were all fortunate to draw from your knowledge and experience and, even though it may not be in print, the new law books to soon reach the shelves of lawyers and judges throughout the state will contain some of your thoughts and ideas.

It's a great state and a great nation-only because folks like you are willing to give your time and energy for the betterment of society.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

John H. Poerner

Dear Editor:

It is with great pleasure that I take this opportunity to commend Representative John Poerner for the time which he devoted to the Committee on Agriculture and Livestock during the 63rd Texas Legislature. The honor and pleasure I enjoyed in serving with John while I was Chairman of this Committee will always be treasured.

You may be assured that his hard work and dedication will be written into the history of good government as it concerns this past session of the Legislature. I only hope that people throughout this state will be appreciative of the accomplishments and hard work that he and the entire committee have achieved.

I truly hope that the committee has served and will continue to serve agriculture to the best of its ability as we continue into the future in the legislative process.

It has been a pleasure to work with John and the other members of the committee in the pursuit of good and beneficial legislation in the agricultural area this past session of the Legislature. Let us hope that we shall be able to work together toward this end for many years to come.

Joe A. Hubenak, Chmn. Committee on Agriculture & Livestock House of Representatives State of Texas

Dear Mr. Lawrence:

Please clarify for the reading public that the titles assigned to me in the account of the Pike-Rexroad wedding, Hondo Anvil Herald, June 28, 1973, were not my doing. In said article I was referred to as "Reverend" and was cited as being the "pastor" of the local Church of Christ. Both of these assignments are erroneous.

The title "Reverend" is not wrong because of my understanding of Matt. 23: 1-12. Furthermore, I do not find any scriptural reference of early Christian preachers being called "reverend".

The office of pastor is reserved for mature men of faith who fit the qualifications found in 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:6-9. Notice also from Titus 1:5, Acts 20:17, 1 Peter 5:1, and other places, that pastors are always a plurality thus not advocating the singularity of this office as so commonly practiced.

I am not "reverend," nor am I "the pastor," nor "the minister," for the Church of Christ, rather I am "A minister" or more simply "a preacher" for the church in Hondo. In all honesty, I'd personally prefer to have no title but since most people seem to have a need for identifying everyone, either of the last two terms as scripturally applicable when preceded by the indefinite article. This is necessitated because all Christians, in the true sense, are ministers and preachers as per the teachings of Romans 12, 1 Peter 2:5, 9, etc.

I know that the references in the article are not intentional misuses and I do always appreciate any publicity for the church. I do hope that my position is understood and that many will be stimulated into studying this further. Thank you for your kindness in receiving this reply and in helping me to clarify this issue which has presented confusion to some.

Sincerely,
Frank Perkins, Jr.

JEANETTE AND MARIETTE AELVOET of the South Hondo Unit 1 4H Club participated in the Vegetable Preparation and Use Contest at the State 4H Roundup, June 5 and 6, at Texas A&M University. In their presentation, "Put Some Kraut in Your Life", they discussed making sourkraut and different uses of sourkraut.

KRME HONORED--Radio Station KRME's Jim Fridle takes time off the board to accept a certificate from Hondo Junior Garden Club president Chris Cole. The certificate was in appreciation for the Station's support of the Hondo Junior Garden Club in its program to create interest in beauty, gardening, conservation and civic pride.

Social Security

Questions & Answers

Question - My mother, who gets monthly social security widow's payments, recently received an application in the mail to fill out and return so she can be assigned a social security number. Since she gets her checks based on my dad's earnings record, why does she need a number of her own?

Answer - The Social Security Administration has started issuing numbers to all people receiving social security payments who don't already have their own numbers. The numbers are being issued to help keep individual benefit payments and social security records straight. Your mother's payments won't be affected in any way.

Question - My ex-husband died last month. We had been divorced for nearly three years. I have three children, ages 7, 8 and 12. Can we get monthly social security payments on his record?

Answer - Yes. If you haven't remarried and your ex-husband had worked long enough under social security, you and the children can get monthly social security checks on his wage record. The children can get payments even if you've remarried.

Question - After 30 years of marriage, I was divorced, and I never got any support payments from my ex-husband. Now he is starting to get social security checks, and my friends tell me that I can't get a divorced wife's payment because he didn't support me. Is this still true?

Answer - No. The support requirement has been eliminated. A divorced wife can get payments at 62 or over if her former husband is getting benefits and if they were married 20 years or longer.

Vets assistance program set

San Antonio area veterans, their dependents and beneficiaries will have the opportunity to receive information on a variety of programs and services available to them during a two-day Veterans Assistance Day Program to be held in the San Antonio Evaluation Center, 2315 Buena Vista, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. July 20 and from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. July 21.

A. A. Hunter, Director of the Houston Regional Office of the Veterans Administration, has organized a corps of experts to help San Antonio area veterans and their dependents. Specialists from the various departments of the Houston Office will be available for consultation with anyone seeking information about veterans' benefits. Pecan growers plan exhibits

Approximately nine exhibits from Medina County will be on display at the annual conference of the Texas Pecan Growers Association to be held at the New Braunfels Civic Center July 16-18.

First order of business in this 52nd annual conference will be a trip to Starcke Park in Seguin, where commercial equipment will be demonstrated, and a tour of the Pape Pecan orchard near Seguin. A barbecue is planned for that night in Seguin.

Tuesday will see the beginning of the conference program, a ladies luncheon and the banquet and Queen's Festival.

Final activities conclude the conference on Wednesday with a business session, conference program, including a much more accurate crop report, and a meeting of the new board holding the agenda spotlight.

Topics to be covered during the two-day conference program include: pecan marketing, pecan weevil control, trickle irrigation, zinc treatment, mycotoxins in pecans, herbicides and many other aspects of pecan culture.

Koch reunion

held July 4

HAROLD MOEHRING--farm shows Kleingrass where it was harvested 22 days before the picture was taken. New seed crop in soft dough to flowering stage when this picture was taken.

The 47th annual M. M. Koch family reunion was held in Hondo City Park on July 4th, 1973.

One hundred and four descendants and four guests were present at noon a barbecue dinner was served.

The afternoon was spent visiting and playing games. Those attending came from Baytown, Killean, Austin, Lockhart, San Antonio, Hondo and D'Hanis.

Kleingrass provides quick harvest for area producers

Seed was harvested by combining from this Kleingrass 22 days before this picture was taken. It is estimated that enough seed will be mature in 5 to 7 more days so that it can be harvested again.

Grass seed production provides an opportunity for farmers to diversify their farming operation and increase farm income.

Many perennial grasses used in seeding improved pasture and reseeding rangeland where brush control has been done are in short supply. There has been a great demand for grasses such as blue panicum, Kleingrass, Gordo bluestem, and Bell rhodesgrass. Climate and soils of the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District are excellent for producing these grasses.

Many of these grasses make two seed crops each year. One in the spring and one in the fall. The grasses can be harvested with a combine without special equipment or extensive modification. Income in excess of $400 per acre was reported last year from one harvest of Kleingrass seed.

Most grasses are indeterminate seeders, which means that all of the seed is never ready to harvest at the same time.

The Soil Conservation Service provides technical assistance to farm operators interested in grass seed production.

San Antonio Festival Sept. 6-9

San Antonio, the fiesta city, takes on an international look when the University of Texas at San Antonio Institute of Texan Cultures stages the granddaddy of all celebrations, the second annual Texas Folklife Festival, September 6-9.

The colorful spectacular will offer a smorgasbord of 15 area festivals from various regions of the state, according to O. T. Baker, festival manager.

The Texas Folklife Festival, to be held on the Institute's 13½ acre HemisFair site, is designed to tell how Texans traditionally have fun. It will feature fun events and activities that range from champion watermelon seed spitters to Indian stick ball demonstrations; from toe-tappin' German Oompah bands to sand-castle building contests with Galveston beauty queens.

Many area festivals will offer a broad range of food selections.

The French-Alsatians of Castroville, representing the Castroville St. Louis Day Celebration, will make their initial appearance at the Texas Folklife Festival serving genuine French cuisine. Charles L. Suehs and Dr. Woodrow M. Sharp, Castroville, are co-chairmen.

The Chilympiad Festival, San Marcos, will host a display of the ingredients for making chili and will serve "Bowls of Red" under the watchful eye of food chairman Jim Hearne.

San Antonio Conservation Society new-elected general chairman Mrs. James N. Castleberry confirms the huge, gaily-decorated "Mexican Market", representing the "Night In Old San Antonio", will tempt visitors with a dozen traditional Mexican dishes including tamales, quesadillos and bunuelos. Co-chairman Mrs. William H. Parrish will arrange demonstrations of making cascarnes, pinatas and paper bouquets in the "Mexican Market".

The Yamboree Festival, Gilmer, will bring back Professor of Possumology, "Spot" Baird and his first assistant, Richard Potter, to amaze visitors with their sweeping command possum and tater lore. Yamboree president W. G. Beisch has appointed Mmes. Temple B. Ingram and Jack F. Baird, co-chairmen. Yamboree champion pie bakers will again demonstrate how the tasty delicacy, yam pie, is made and over 200 pies and custards will be offered for sale.

The Wurstfest, New Braunfels, will serve German sausage-on-a-stick and sauerkraut, according to president Milton T. Kaderli. Entertainment chairman Ed Kadleck announces that the Wurstfest will bring a "lederhosen" costumed adult German Oompah Band and two costumed singing groups: the Kinderchor (children's choir of 3 to 12-year-olds) and the Engkinder (Angel Choir consisting of six teenage girls).

The art of preparing favorite German foods will be demonstrated by German women from Comfort, Boerne, Kendallia, Welfare and Sisterdale, representing the Kendall County Fair Auxiliary. Chairman Mrs. Alice Gerfers, Boerne, declared they would also hold quilting bees.

The San Antonio Greek Funstival chairman Luke Postolos describes their program as preparation of Greek food and folk dancing groups from Houston and San Antonio.

Cathy Carter becomes bride of Alfred Haby

Miss Cathy Marie Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Carter of Hondo, and Alfred Robert Haby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olen Haby of Rio Medina, were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Hondo on June 9, 1973 at 7:30 p.m.

Reverend William Landers performed the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Geneva Masters, cousin of the bride, provided such musical selections as "The Wedding March", "O Perfect Love", "Love Story" and "Romeo and Juliet" on the organ.

Before and during the ceremony Miss Sherrie Tondre sang "I Looked for Love" and "The Wedding Song", accompanied by Tom Hill on the guitar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Juliet style gown of organza and peau de ange lace. The bib effect bodice was outlined in dainty ruffles and lace. The empire A-line skirt was applied in lace extending onto the chapel-length train and the edge of the hemline. The full long sleeves of organza were cuffed in lace and edged in dainty ruffles. The elbow length illusion veil flowed from a Juliet crown adorned in applied lace and pearls.

She wore an antique gold pin that once belonged to her great-grandmother Haass. She carried a sweetheart bouquet with white roses mixed with white carnations, blue baby's breath, and ivy.

Maid of honor was Miss Vicki Graff of New Braunfels. Bridesmaids were Misses Myra McCartney, cousin of the bride, Patti Haby, and Donna Wiemers. Miss Gail Carter, sister of the bride, preceded the bride as flower girl.

The attendants wore floor-length empire dresses with scooped ruffled necklines and short puffed sleeves made from light blue crepe. To accent the dresses the attendants wore wide brim white hats and carried nosegays of spring flowers. The flower girl wore a similar floor-length dress and carried a small white flower basket filled with spring flowers.

The best man was Curtiss Saathoff. Groomsmen were Albert Lutz and Arthur Haby, both cousins of the groom, and Floyd Stuebing.

Ushers were Harold Huckle, head usher and cousin of the groom, Kevin Haby, brother of the groom, and Duane McCartney, cousin of the bride.

Kevin Haby and Duane McCartney also served as candlelighters.

The church altar was decorated with a tall candelabra and accented with greenery. The Baptistry was decorated with an arrangement of spring flowers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Reid Hall. Miss Laura Carter, sister of the bride, presided at the bride's book.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth over a blue underlay. The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with blue and white roses on white icing.

Mrs. Carmen Strunk, cousin of the groom, served the bride's cake and Mrs. Patsy Myers, cousin of the groom, served punch. An arrangement of spring flowers and white candles in crystal holders formed the centerpiece.

The groom's table was covered with a white crocheted cloth over a blue underlay. Miss Sheila Schrader served the German chocolate cake while Miss Karen Jessee served coffee.

After a short honeymoon, the couple are now at home in Hondo. The bride is employed at H.E.B. in Hondo and the groom is employed with Allegheny Central Heating and Air Conditioning in San Antonio.

A happy way to spend the Glorious Fourth is to be among-those-present at a mid-day picnic in GERTIE [Mrs. Barnitz] CARLE's tree-shaded back yard.

Guests who invoked "King's-X" on calories for the festive occasion included Mmes. MARY P. WALLACE of Corpus Christi, PAUL POPE, C. J. MONKHOUSE, B. L. KOLLMAN, E. W. BRUCKS and "ALL SHE WROTE".

It is an established belief [among the disciples of Isaak Walton] that "Allah does not deduct from the allotted time of man those hours spent in fishing."

Firm in this absolving credo, eight local anglers, with FRITZ LEINWEBER riding shotgun, made a bass-catching trip, in June, to EL PALMITO, west of TORREON, MEXICO where they didn't let the biggest ones get away.

Included in the piscatorial pasia were MAYOR J. G. BARRY, FRED BADER, GIP CHAPMAN, HILMER MUELLER, JERRY MUENNINK, KENNETH FLORY and RENO STANGA.

Fritz says plans for a July trip to the same "Sportsman's Paradise" are now building up a head of steam.

ALICE [Mrs. C. J.] PICHOT contributed this from her store of grandparental anecdotes:

KENNETH CHARLES, 4-year old son of the DENNIS [Laura] PICHOTS, developed a rash around his neck. "It itches," he complained to his mother, "I think I need a flea collar."

Ken's pediatrician diagnosed the case as scarlet fever!

Personnel on duty at the ANVIL HERALD's BUSINESS MACHINES SHOP are giving organic gardening a try.

A watermelon seed found its way into the shop sink, got caught in the body of a big spider which had been en route to a watery grave, and began to sprout.

When I saw it, the sprout was about six inches high, still wearing the seed's black outer shell and probably wondering "Where do I wander from here?"

In the same office, I noted a wall display of "indigestibles" which Service Manager G. E. [Pete] PEDROZA had salvaged from adding machines, typewriters etc. which needed his ministrations before returning to duty.

On the board were coins, stamps, match books, small boxes, labels, plastic toys, buttons, screws, bolts, nails and one mud dauber's tunneled apartment.

Until last week, it had been many a year since I had received a letter with the once heart-fluttering symbolic "SWAK" on the envelop flap.

This one was from one of my once-little and now growing-up girls who still keep in touch by mail. JUDY, daughter of the LEROY HEILIGMANS; and DOROTHY, of the RAY [Rosalie] JONES family, keep me current on the local "goings-on".

Come the '73-74 school term, both will be HHS Sophomores. Time never stands still!

One JOANNES STOBÆUS [c.500] is credited with this observation: "Farming is a senseless pursuit, a mere laboring in a circle. You sow that you may reap, and then you reap that you may sow. Nothing ever comes of it."

—to which many a farmer might be inclined to add a fervent "Amen" after some of nature's unpredictable seasons.

Sunday, July 15, will be St. Swithin's Day, so named, in the early 860s, after an English bishop.

Legend says if rain falls on St. Swithin's Day, it will continue for 40 days. If the day be fair, count on 40 days of sunshine.

Check with the Taylor-Chapman reports for confirmation or evidence to the contrary.

A review of a two-act play, written in Spanish and performed by a Texas A and I drama class, included this prediction for its certain success:

"Backers say its popularity will spread faster than guacamole on a toasted tortilla chip."

How's that for an apt and very present-day simile?

Generation-graduations special mention. Here are some for Hondo High records:

Grandfather Bailey Rogers, 1910; Father Jim Rogers, 1944; daughter Susie Rogers, 1973.

On her maternal side, Susie's mother [Inell Braden Rogers] followed in the graduation footsteps [1948] of her mother, Winnie Rucker [Mrs. G. O.] Braden who says the year is now one of her trade secrets.

Slight injuries in car-bridge mishap

A Hondo youth escaped serious injuries Sunday afternoon when the car in which he was riding struck a bridge near Bandera on Highway 173. Taken to Medina Memorial Hospital with apparent shoulder injuries was Mike Groff of Hondo.

Authorities said the driver of the car, Tim Hardt, also of Hondo, escaped injuries.

Highway Patrol Officers said the mishap occurred about 4:15 Sunday afternoon when the car driven by Hardt struck a flow of water rushing across the highway. The car skidded into the bridge and Groff was thrown from the car. Officers said his fall was broken by the rushing water and he escaped with only minor injuries.

Betty Rieber Crowell

Miss Crowell is Youth Director

[Editor's Note: How could one misplace a story like this? It's easy to do sometimes when one isn't too well organized. Anyway, that's what happened to the following story. We print it with apologies to the parties concerned.]

Betty Rieber Crowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Rieber of Amarillo and formerly of D'Hanis, is making a name for herself in the Houston area, and she's doing it through exercise.

A Youth Director for the YMCA, Betty is one of only two ladies working for the "Y" in this capacity. She implements the Gray Y and Tru-Gray Y physical education programs, teaches gymnastics for children, guides the slimnastics group and jogs regularly.

Betty also has become a regular on the Steve Edwards morning television show "doing her thing" with "slimnastics".

The former D'Hanis native was recently chosen Career Girl of the Month.

Her background in physical education began in high school at D'Hanis where she participated in girls basketball, track and served as a cheerleader. She went on in these endeavors as a graduate of the University of Houston.

Betty is married to Michael Roy Crowell.

Finger retires

Calling on the same people every day for 44 years could become boring to some people, but not to a former D'Hanis resident, Maurice J. Finger.

Finger retired June 30 after 44 years as a rural mail carrier. He has served the people of the Skidmore-Tynan-Olmos route since July 1, 1934.

Actually, Finger began carrying the mail at D'Hanis on September 23, 1929. Then on July 1, 1934 he and his wife and their two daughters, Norma Lee and Maureen, ages 5 and 2 at that time, moved to Skidmore and made their home there.

Finger has worked with five postmasters and has had five substitutes during this long period of time.

"I'll miss seeing these people every day and enjoying a visit with them," he said.

Medina Co. plays significant role in 1972 petroleum production

The petroleum industry in Medina County played a significant role in 1972 in helping to satisfy the unprecedented demand for Texas' crude oil and natural gas.

Medina was one of 190 of Texas' 254 counties which produced oil and gas valued in excess of $100,000 in a record production year for the state's No. 1 industry, according to figures compiled by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

The county ranked 179th in the state in the value of petroleum produced, $586,000. The sale of crude oil brought most of that total.

But despite this record year, due in large part to nine months of production at 100-percent of the maximum efficient rate, the nation's largest producer of petroleum could not produce enough to satisfy demand.

"To further stimulate production, we need a restoration of the open market force," said Robert A. Buschman of San Antonio, president of the Association.

"This would produce two much-needed effects: First, it would channel the state's petroleum products to the most efficient and highest priority uses; second, it would help provide part of the capital needed so desperately to build refineries and super-ports and to carry on expensive exploration and production activities," Buschman added.

This study by the Association also shows that production last year in Medina County resulted in the payment of $73,000 to royalty owners.

The state of Texas received $27,000 in production taxes from county wells, with most of that total coming from crude oil output.

Oil and gas producers and developers spent $131,000 drilling four wells in the county last year, all dry holes.

According to the Texas Employment Commission, 127 oil and gas industry employees worked in the county in 1972 and shared a payroll of $660,000.

Singing group to sing at Lutheran Church

Saint Paul Lutheran Church of Hondo will have a special singing group at their church on Sunday, July 15, at 7:30 p.m. The name of the group is the Agape Singers and they are from Hope Lutheran Church of San Antonio. The Agape Singers are some high school and college musicians directed by Mrs. Sue Steinbring.

Celebrate! is the theme of the 1973 concerts of the Agape Singers. The message conveyed is that because of the Life, Death and Resurrection of Jesus, the Christ, we can and should celebrate with joy. Celebrate! is given by song and dramatic monologue in a concert of approximately one hour and 15 minutes.

Everyone is invited to come and hear this special singing group and after the concert, the women of St. Paul Lutheran will serve refreshments.

The Agape Singers know the Love of God ("Agape" is the Greek word for God's Love) and are dedicated to sharing that love with others.

Map planned for tourists

Tourists will love the map being planned by a committee headed by Glenn Dittmar.

Or it can be worthwhile and informative to area residents.

Anyway, the committee met Thursday to continue plans for a brochure-map which will highlight the many historical and scenic attractions to be seen in Medina County.

What is there to see in Medina County? A skeptic might ask.

To name just a few: In Castroville, there's the St. Louis Church, Landmark Inn, Moya School, the Regional Park; Hondo has the Museum, the old Metzger Home, vegetable farms, the airfield; D'Hanis has the St. Dominic Church, Fort Lincoln; and throughout the county are scenic and architectural routes through Rio Medina, Quibi, New Fountain; wild game, the dinosaur tracks; coal mines, battle grounds, and many other sites.

Members will meet in three weeks to try to finalize the brochure and prepare it for printing. Approximately 5,000 copies are planned in the first printing.

Committee members include: Glenn Dittmar, chairman; Darwin Schrader, Jerry Turrentine, Burnis Lawrence, Joe Fohn, Martin Noonan, Leroy Britsch, R. C. Bless, Jerry Alexander, Mrs. Josie Finger, Rocky Sedgwick, Ruth Lawler of Castroville and Yancey Russell of Devine.

Memorial proposed for St. John's Cemetery

Plans for the building of a garden Memorial in St. John's Cemetery was announced by Rev. George Stuebben last week in a full page ad in the Anvil Herald.

Father Stuebben also sent the information to all parishioners in a letter mailed at the same time.

"The plan has received the approval of His Excellency Most Reverend Francis J. Furey," Rev. Stuebben said in his letter.

An agreement has been made with the Southern Memorial Company of New Orleans to conduct a survey of the Catholic Community to determine the size of the Memorial. This company has successfully completed such projects in many other Texas cities.

The letter continued: "Perpetual care of the Garden Memorial will be assured through an endowed care trust fund which is to be used solely for the care and maintenance of the Memorial. This fund will be comprised of 10 percent of the proceeds from each selection made in the Garden Memorial. The interest and earnings from this fund will be more than ample to maintain the memorial through the years."

Construction will begin when the size of the memorial is arrived at upon the completion of the survey which is now underway, according to the letter.

Board order for Aquifer near reporting date

Work on a Texas Water Quality Board order for the Edwards Underground Aquifer is progressing, according to Hugh C. Yantis, Jr., TWQB executive director. "It should be ready for presentation to the July meeting of our Board," he explained, pointing out that seven hearings on the matter have been held in the counties concerned since March 20.

"We've held at least one hearing in each of the five counties which overlie the aquifer, and we've had many meetings with governmental groups in the area," Yantis said. "The matter is being held open until the report of the Task Force of the Alamo Area Council of Governments is in and I believe that group has been given a deadline of July 15," he added. In the meantime, he explained, work on a revised order is progressing.

Commenting on the recent court case in which the Sierra Club brought action with regard to San Antonio Ranch New Town, Yantis said, "The Water Quality Board simply was a party to a suit filed by the Sierra Club against the developer and the Department of Housing and Urban Development. It has been said that the Attorney General ordered the Water Quality Board to withdraw from that suit, but that is incorrect. The Attorney General's Department, in fact, represented the Water Quality Board throughout the entire proceeding."

The question also has been raised as to who will enforce the Edwards order when it has been completed and approved by the TWQB, and Yantis commented that he felt the Edwards Underground Water District should be the entity, "but they don't seem to want that responsibility, though the district has been invited on at least two occasions to serve in that capacity. The district has the power to handle it. It was created by the legislature in 1959, eight years before there was such a thing as a Texas Water Quality Board, and the Edwards statute specifically states that its purpose is 'conserving, protecting and recharging the underground water-bearing formations within the District, and for the prevention of waste and pollution of such underground water.'"

"So I would think," Yantis continued, "that it would be entirely logical for the district to handle enforcement of the order. Why its members do not want to do the job when it is clearly a part of the district's responsibility, I do not know."

Development in the area is a foregone certainty, Yantis observed, "And we feel it is far better to insure proper and orderly development with great care for the vastly important underground water reserves, rather than to let the area simply build up haphazardly, with an ever increasing number of septic tanks over the aquifer."

"The Board's entire objective is to protect the waters in the aquifer and we certainly do not intend to fail in that objective, though I still feel that the District should take an active part in enforcement of the order," Yantis concluded.

Consumers have right to complain

By Gaye Bippert
Medina Co. Ext. Agent

Consumers have the right to complain--and to expect adjustments--on purchases that fall short.

They also have the responsibility of making justified complaints--not those stemming from consumer negligence or abuse.

Consumers can follow several guidelines to insure better products and service.

Make a habit of keeping receipts, hangtags, warranties, and care labels in one convenient place so they're available if needed for merchandise returns.

Before buying, read instructions carefully concerning use, storage, washing, oiling and other general care for a preview on what to expect from the product. After buying, follow instructions.

This may eliminate the need to return merchandise.

When returning merchandise avoid making returns near closing time or during rush hours. If leaving an item for repairs, or if a refund will be mailed to you, be sure to get a receipt for the item.

In making a complaint be calm and courteous. Be friendly, but firm, and don't be sarcastic or abusive.

Let the facts speak for themselves. State the facts clearly--where and when the product was purchased, its model number (if any), brand name, price and what is wrong with it. Try to explain what went wrong, when and how the defect appeared.

If telephoning complaint, ask name of person receiving complaint. If writing letter, include your name, address, zip code and telephone number on all correspondence and keep carbon copies.

Company addresses appear in "Poor's Register of Corporations, Directors and Executives" or "Moody's Industrial Manual" in most libraries.

If a company doesn't respond to a first letter within two or three weeks, send a second letter. If there is still no response, refer the matter to Consumer Protection lawyers in the nearest regional office of the state attorney general.

Contact Ms. Joan Dunsard or Rudolfo Sandoval, 140 Main Plaza, San Antonio, Texas 78205 or call 512-227-8111.

Changes in bank lending could help rural Texas

College Station -- A recent lending change in the Federal Reserve System could be a boon to the rural economy of Texas. The change could make an estimated additional $1 billion in loanable funds available to Texas residents from the state's rural banks.

Called "Seasonal Borrowing Privilege", the change is designed to help rural banks expand loaned fund sources where the local economy has a seasonal loan need, such as with grain sorghum, cotton, wheat or rice production, points out Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Rural banks experience wide fluctuations in loan demand from area farmers, and when such loans reach a seasonal high, other legitimate community loan needs must often be denied," notes the Texas A&M University specialist.

Hayenga contends that the additional loanable funds could be used for consumer credit purposes as well as local and area economic development.

The "Seasonal Borrowing Privilege" could affect an estimated 334 rural banks in Texas, more than one-fourth of all the banks in the state. To be eligible to use the borrowing privilege, banks must be members of the Federal Reserve System.

In addition to rural areas, the change may also increase loanable funds to banks serving communities with other types of seasonal needs for funds, such as resort areas.

Additional information can be obtained from the Federal Reserve Bank or from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C., adds Hayenga.

weather

The Anvil Herald takes this opportunity to let Doc Taylor and Russell Chapman say "We told y'all so."

The occasion is (what else) rain predictions, made on June 28 by one or both members of the Taylor-Chapman service.

They said at that time, "Due to an early morning moon change (first quarter) occurring July 7 at 2:26 a.m., we predict rain on or about that date."

Results: as usual, the calendar coincided with the T-C chart, and just before midnight Saturday, July 7, a severe thunderstorm hit the area and continued to spread over a large territory.

The almost continuous rainfall on Saturday and Sunday bore witness to lunar leverage.

A few readings as of Monday morning include, Hondo, 4.90 inches; Rancho Chico, 5.50; Short Ranch, 6.20; George Koch, 5 in.; Miss Dora Wilson (Yancey), 6 in.;

Henry Stiegler (Dunlay), 2.20; ranch north of Hondo, 7.20. . . the creeks are up, stock tanks are filling, and maize growers are wishing for sunshine.

It's all kind of spooky. Makes one wonder if there was ever a time when there were forty moon-changes in forty days and nights.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

The Hondo Church of Christ will be conducting a Vacation Bible School, July 16-July 20. The Bible School will begin at 9:30 each morning with a general assembly and songs until 10:00 a.m. when each will go into his/her own class. Class will be followed at 11:00 a.m. by refreshments and a short devotional period will conclude the services at 11:30 a.m. These classes will be held for all age groups through the junior high level (eighth grade during this past school year). Everyone within this age bracket is cordially invited to come and participate in this rewarding period of Bible study and fellowship. The regular Wednesday evening service at 7:30 p.m. will carry this same theme for adults.

The theme of this year's VBS is "How Great Thou Art" which centers around a study of God and the many things that God has provided for man. These lessons are designed to give a deeper insight into the great love that God has for man and to show that God today is still interested in the actions and designs of man. Such studies give meaning to the passage: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16) and illustrate the thoughts of Paul, "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!" (Romans 11:33).

Truly this will be a richly rewarding experience for all who attend. No better use for your time could be found than in the study of God's Word, so plan to attend every day of this Vacation Bible School. You will have much fun during the week and will learn useful principals from God that will benefit you through life. What greater opportunity could you ever have?

TWIRLERS READY-These four good looking girls say they are ready for the 1973 Owl football season. They have been to school at Southwestern University at Georgetown and believe they have conquered the art of twirling. Or at least conquered some new routines. They will be out front when the Hondo Owl Band makes its debut at the beginning of the 1973 season. Doing the twirling chores are, kneeling, left to right: Carol deMontel and Marcy Mueller; Standing: Theresa [Terry] Nira and Linda Bendele.

SA golfers to play here

San Antonio comes to Hondo Sunday, July 15.

Or some of the northside golfers will be here for action, according to Virgil Krenmueller of the Hondo Golf Course.

Another in the series of Hondo-Northside Amateur Golf Association will take place with an entry deadline of noon Saturday, July 14.

This will be match play and following the action, all golfers will enjoy a meal.

P&W Dept. to set dove season

Austin - Mourning and white-winged dove seasons top the list of agenda items to be considered by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission in its meeting July 12.

Federal guidelines on the seasons and limits of migratory birds were not available to the Parks and Wildlife Department at the time this release was published but should be forwarded to the department shortly before the July 12 meeting.

In its request to Washington, the department recommended that the experimental split dove season be repeated for a second year, one segment in the early fall and the second half in mid-winter.

The commission will also set seasons for the department's wildlife management areas.

Another major item the commission will consider is proposed permit fees for hunting on the department's wildlife management areas.

Night Fishing For Bass

If you know your lake well enough to move about it at night in a boat, you'll find that fishing for bass after dark is usually more productive than in the daytime.

This is especially true in hot weather!

There are two sound reasons for better success in the evening. One is that the water is cooler once the sun has gone down and fish are naturally more active than they are in the heat of the day. Also more insects fly about after dark and some invariably land on the water to become prey of the bass.

However, one must keep in mind the fact that fish don't have quite as good vision at night—therefore your lure should be worked slower. Give the bass a chance to locate the lure by sight as well as by sound.

Also, when using a topwater chugger at night, pop it only lightly at first. Then let it rest for awhile—for a full minute if you have the patience—then move it again only slightly.

If that doesn't tempt a strike, reel in a few feet of line, s-l-o-w-l-y, then let the bait rest again. After about 30 seconds pop it slightly again. Repeat this procedure until the lure is alongside the boat. Then try another spot only ten or twelve feet away.

Every time you cast out start working the lure as close to the bank as possible. In the dark of night is when casting skill and knowledge of the area pay greatest dividends. Snagging a tree limb or a lily pad or a boulder is bad enough in the daytime, but at night it's murder. So, cast with caution.

My buddy and I were fishing well before daylight early one morning, when all became quiet in the other end of the boat. A glance in that direction revealed a silhouette of my partner holding his rod straight up. When I inquired what had happened he replied, "I think I've hung the moon". Sure enough he had cast his lure over an overhanging cable that crossed the lake at that spot.

Once you get used to night fishing it's great. For sure there's no greater thrill than having a big bass hit a Hula Popper or a Heddon Spook in the quiet of night. It scares the dickens out of every angler every-time, no matter how often it occurs.

So—if you want some unexpected thrills—try night fishing. It's different—and usually more productive.

AACOG radio system funded

Austin - Governor Dolph Briscoe today awarded grants totaling $338,472 for improving law enforcement and crime prevention in the area served by Alamo Area Council of Governments, San Antonio.

The money will come from the Criminal Justice Council, which administers the state's block grant from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration under the Omnibus Crime Control Act.

San Antonio will receive $87,047 third-year funding of its crime task force in the police department. Funding will permit expansion of the task force to cope with increased work resulting from annexation of new areas to the city. It provides $81,316 for personnel, $5,431 for equipment.

Also granted third-year funding was the Bexar County-San Antonio Organized Crime Control Unit. Amount is $66,215. The award will continue to provide a highly trained task force with countywide jurisdiction. It includes investigators from the San Antonio Police Department and the county sheriff's and district attorney's offices. During 1972 the unit made 72 felony arrests and confiscated 1,103 grams of hard drugs and 309 pounds of marijuana.

A $27,252 grant to San Antonio will be used to establish a new crime prevention unit in the police department. The unit will conduct an extensive public education program, aimed at reducing burglary and theft. A $2,663 cash match is stipulated.

AACOG was awarded $113,111 supplemental funding to complete implementation of the regional law enforcement radio network.

Guadalupe County was awarded $44,847 to develop adult and juvenile probation services for the 25th and second 25th judicial districts, serving Guadalupe, Gonzales, Colorado and Lavaca Counties. Offices will be established in Guadalupe and Gonzales counties, and three probation officers will be employed. Grantee will contribute a $9,443 cash match.

School bus drivers must train

Hondo and Medina County school bus drivers must get some training and a check up, said the 63rd Texas Legislature.

Effective with the 1973-74 school year, school bus drivers must begin training in order to be certified and must undergo an annual physical examination.

Also, their past driving record must comply with standards to be set by the Texas Education Agency and the Texas Department of Public Safety.

ionship Panther baseball team.
